Why do Kids want to eat food in class?

I have interviewed, many, and the people have spoken. They have decided that eating should be permitted in class. One point often raised was that if they clean up after themselves, it would be acceptable. Some students countered that eating usually creates a mess, which can attract pests in the classroom. Additionally, it was argued that students feel the brunch break is simply too short. This could be a genuine concern, as, without adequate time to eat, some may feel forced to do so.

Teacher Interview

Teacher Asked: Mr. Highberger

Q. Do you enjoy teaching?

Yes, even after 40 years, I still enjoy teaching, although it depends on who I'm dealing with.

Q. What's your favorite exercise?

My favorite exercise is bike riding, it covers more ground and the scenery it provides is beautiful.
