Opinionated Sequoia:

Are our passing periods long enough?

Are our passing periods long enough? Some students have been complaining that there isn't enough time to get from class to class in time. Some students say tha the hallways fill up with so many students that you can't physically walk faster to get to class and end up being late. Four minutes is not enough. We need passing period to be at least 5 minutes. Additionally, when students ask to use the restroom they get told to go during passing period but then they would be late.

"What if we need to go to the bathrooms? Then we only have 1 minute to get to class which clearly isn't enough."

-Bella Solis

"It's long enough because it gives you enough time to walk from class to class."

-Darion Aguba

"Not at all! It isn't enough to use the restrooms and if we ask during class the teachers question us and ask why we didn't go during passing period."

-Sophia Mirghanberi

"No bro it isn't enough time. I need to see my friends."
