STUDENTLY OPINIONINGS/STUDENT OPINIONS

Going outside to celebrate New Year's is better than any other way of celebrating. You can get your steps in and get fresh air to stay healthy.

Additionally, outside, you can socialize with others and enjoy watching fireworks. Not only that, but you can also see the ball drop in real life, instead of watching it on TV (could get ruined by an ad if that happens anymore).

Marco Zermeno: To celly? Inside all the way. That should be the only way because I've celebrated like that for the past 13 years, and I feel like most of us have.

DARION AGUBA: Staying indoors is the best way to celebrate New Year's. Being with family is far better and feels more comfortable, and I can also stay warm.

Juliet Sanchez: I only celebrate New Year's inside, obviously, to stay warm. I spend my break chillaxing and on a call with my besties.

Kendall Lynn: Outside to celebrate New Year's because I get to watch the fireworks explode. They are so beautiful and make celebrating a new year feel better.

STUDENT INTERVIEW

MRS. CONKLIN

What are your New Years resolution?

"To not take everything too personally."

What do you think will happen next year?

"People will become more loving."

How has this year been for you?

"Awesome."

What's your favorite month?

"Feburary, it's the month of love, and my birthday!"
